INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

The Security Situation in Uruguay
(Situation Report Number 24)

1. No new information has been received that would change the conclusions reached in Special National Intelligence Estimate 98-67, SECURITY CONDITIONS IN URUGUAY, 23 March 1967.

2. The Communist Party of Uruguay's anti-Summit propaganda campaign is scheduled to go into high gear on 11 April. The Communists are not sanguine about their chances of organizing a successful general strike in the Punta del Este area. However, they are more hopeful for success in Montevideo where, so far, unions representing nearly 70,000 workers have announced strike support. The Party apparently has picked 12 April for the general strike and 14 April for their major mass demonstration.

3. Elsewhere, the Communist Party of Chile (PCCh) is considering greeting Venezuelan President Leoni with protest strikes, propaganda, and demonstrations when he visits Chile on 10 April en route to Punta del Este.

 if President Johnson should visit Chile the Communists probably would adopt protest measures similar to those being planned in Uruguay.
